Written Response to
DEBTORS' FORTY-THIRD OMNIBUS OBJECTION TO CLAIMS
(LATE-FILED LEHMAN PROGRAMS SECURITIES CLAIMS)

Cover sheet containing photocopies of first page of objection notice and certificate of posting of claim

To facilitate processing of this written response, I have photocopied the first page of the objection notice containing my case-identifying information, on the reverse side of which is a photocopy of the certificate of posting of my claim on October 24, 2009 to Epiq Business Solutions via air mail.

The claim

I, THAM YIU KWOK, the claimant of claim number 64424, hold HKD 200,000 (equivalent to USD 25,672.62) in aggregate face value of the Lehman Programs Security: International Securities Identification Number XS0348407411.

I oppose the debtors' objection in seeking to disallow and expunge my claim.

Why the claim should not be disallowed and expunged

My claim is a fair and documented claim on the debtors.

I posted my claim on 24 October, as can be discernible from the date stamp in day-month-year numeral format in the certificate of posting (on the reverse side of the cover sheet and unfortunately photocopied upside down). I asked the postal clerk at the time of posting whether the air-mail letter from Hong Kong could reach the United States destination by November 2 and was verbally re-assured. It is a reasonable expectation that an air-mail letter from Hong Kong can be delivered to the United States destination in under ten days. Being a small investor of limited and much reduced means, I posted the claim via air mail on October 24, 2009 as a reasonable period of time was allowed for the delivery of my claim. The delay in postal processing at the receiving end was unforeseen and beyond one's control.

I appeal to the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, on compassionate grounds, taking into consideration the circumstances stated above, not to disallow and expunge my claim but rather to let the claim proceed and take its full course in seeking eventual distribution on principal and interest to this small investor and petitioner.

Apologies for not being able to attend the hearing

The expenses and travelling time involved make it impossible for me to attend the hearing on October 27, 2010 as I am trying hard to hold on to my job in these hard times.

Contact telephone numbers

I live in Hong Kong and unfortunately had to find work in Macao. During weekdays, I may be reached at +853 6665 1924 (mobile phone) and +853 2883 1106 (Macao dormitory). On weekends and holidays, I may be reached at +852 2891 7486 (Hong Kong home - messages can be left at this number for me to call back). The local time for both Hong Kong and Macao is Greenwich Mean Time + 8 hours. For all matters relating to the claim, please contact me at the address below, which is the same as in the proof-of-claim form.
